Mostre, eventi e appuntamenti per un anno

“iDOGI AWARDS” is an internationally affirmed event, with a panel of judges representing the most authoritative international institutions in the sector (see annex). This year's event was hosted by Vanessa Brady, founder of the Society of British and International Designers, London. It is always an extraordinary occasion of meetings with professionals from the world of international luxury, in which the excellence of Italian style and quality plays a leading role.

For this 2018 edition, many studios took part from different countries: Japan, Indonesia, India, UAE, United Kingdom, Principality of Monaco, China, United States, Russia and of course Italy.

Among the many projects submitted, the Jury decided on the winners of the individual categories:

- Residential projects under 1,000 sq.m: Studio Crawford Partnership, UK
- Residential projects over 1,000 sq.m.: Studio Dahlia Design L.L.C., USA
- Public areas of hotels: Alex Kravetz Design Studio, UK

Two special mentions were also given:

- For the search of a fertile pollination between East and West: Vivianne Faye Studio (INDONESIA)
- For a unique and innovative concept of union between tradition and future: Makoto Yamaguchi Design (JAPAN)

In the programme of the event, Friday 16 November saw the presentations of all the projects with the related evaluations of the jurors. All the participants visited the headquarters of iDOGI®, to take in the prestigious, unique luminous artistic creations of which iDOGI® is the world leader.
